

Preliminary Agenda for the Simon Parker/Nina Rosenbusch Doctoral Workshop

- July 1 – 4, 2013
- This seminar is organized together with the University of Wuppertal and RSBE, University of Siegen (Prof. Petra Moog, Prof. Dr. Diemo Urbig).
- First two days (July 1 & 2) take place in Siegen, last two days (July 3 & 4) in Wuppertal i.e. students have to travel between the two universities during the 4-day course.
- About 20 participants (10 - 12 from BUW, 10 -12 from Siegen).
- Application deadline
  - BUW doctoral students is June 15. Please register with Prof. Urbig (Urbig@uni-wuppertal.de) and Prof. Procher (procher@uni-wuppertal.de) at the JZ. Slots will be allocated on a “first come, first served” basis.
  - Siegen doctoral students is June 15. Please register with Jutta Leonhardt (jutta.leonhardt@uni-siegen.de) Slots will be allocated on a “first come, first served” basis.
- Lectures during the morning sessions (9:30 – 12:30), afternoon sessions (14:00 – 17:00) for paper discussion with Simon Parker and Nina Rosenbusch. NOTE: This includes individual and/or group feedback on a working paper handed in by the doctoral students beforehand (25th of June).
- Course Outline:
  - (1) Research strategy/project development (covering i.e.: timing, co-authorships, surviving setbacks versus canceling projects, strategies for identification of relevant (publishable) research gaps, for approaching & handling co-authorships, when/how to talk to experienced researchers, asking for (friendly) feedback, what are the implicit rules? use of conferences etc.),
  - (2) Publishing strategy,
  - (3) How journals work (dos and don'ts; how to review papers and respond to reviewer and editor letters with practical examples),
  - (4) Writing advice with practical examples of how to write papers effectively (requires students to submit their papers beforehand and revise work during the 4 day event)
- Examination: Course grade: pass or fail. Course parts: Mandatory attendance and active participation during all seminars, reading the course literature, delivering course paper (5 ETCS)
- Schumpeter Colloquium (July 3 or 4, tbc): It is envisaged that Simon Parker presents some new insights and recent developments with respect to his book „Economics of Entrepreneurship“ (the latter is currently offered as a master seminar by Urbig/Procher).